

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION OF THE BIRTH OF MANOLIS GLEZOS

28 September 2022

15:00 | Spinelli 1G2 "Manolis Glezos"

Manolis Glezos, who died on 30 March 2020 at the age of 97, was a Greek resistance hero fighter, who at 18 – famously tore down a swastika from Acropolis, in 1941. He was a pillar of the international fight against repression and inequality, a symbol of resistance against fascism, and an active politician. He was also an active journalist and writer.

Simultaneous interpretation in EN, FR, ES, EL, DE, PT and IT